

I wonder if you
sense God watching
anything?

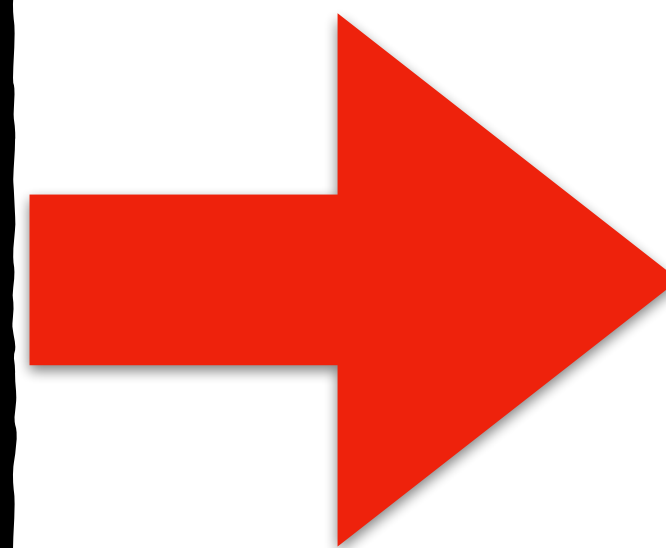

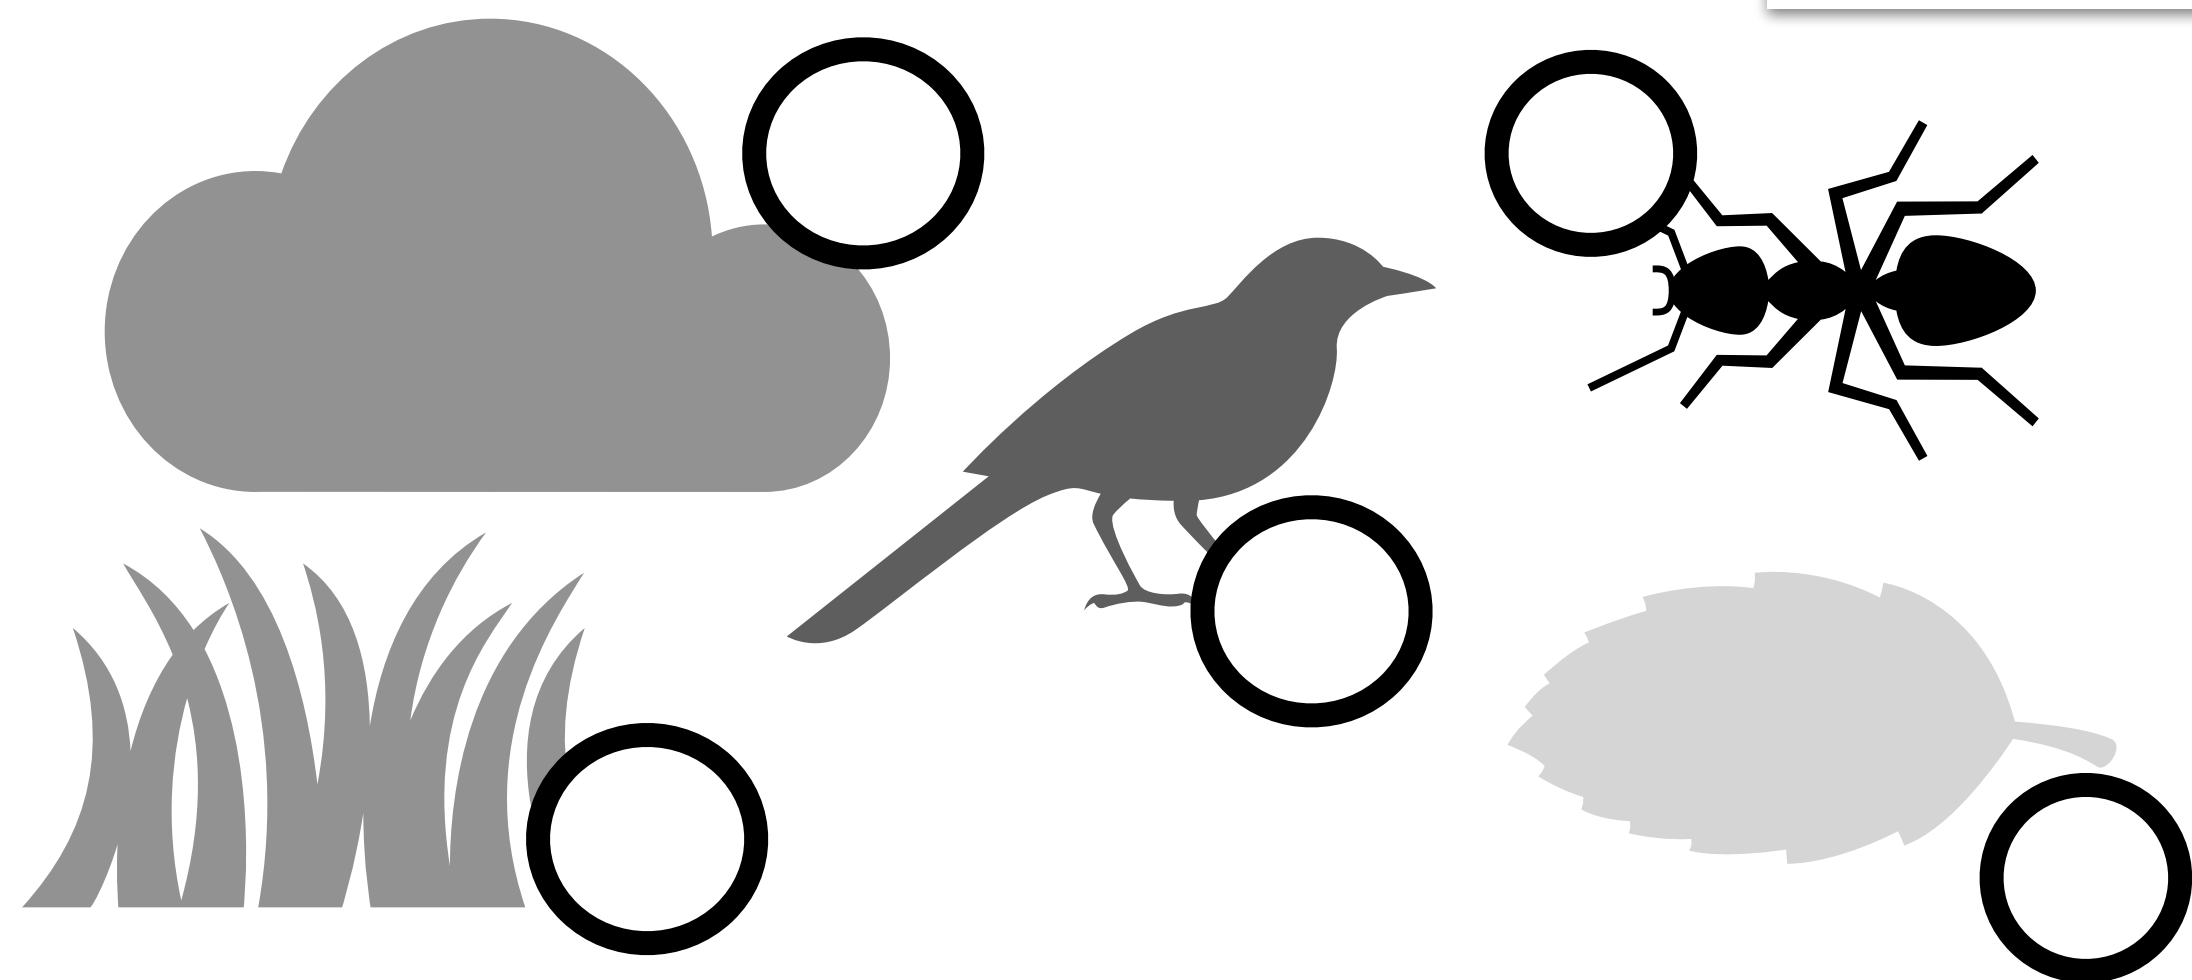

The Lord keeps watch over
you as you come and go,
both now and forever

Psalms 121:8

What can you see?

Can you see things
coming and going?

Can you see any new thing
growing or notice anything
you have never seen before?

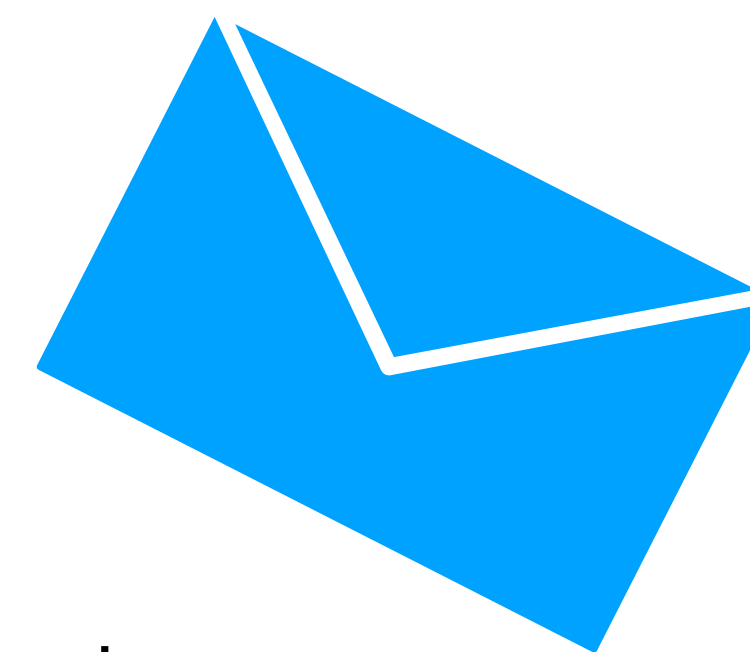

I wonder if God
starts new things?

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet
of the messenger who brings good news,
the good news of peace and salvation,
the news that the God of Israel reigns!

Isaiah 52:7

Can you think of some good news
you could share with someone?
Maybe you could make a card or a note.

Flood Waters Within Our Walls

The small sink almost immediately began to overflow and begin to flood.

A suspect was apprehended yesterday morning while fleeing the scene of the crime. Jason, age three, plugged the sink and left water running in the upstairs bathroom Sunday morning. A massive flood ensued, soaking the upstairs bathroom Sunday morning. Water trickled through the cabinets, floors, and walls. His sentence would have been far more severe had Mom not been writing a talk on compassion at the time. Jason's previous crimes include chugging milk out of the jug and vandalizing my bedroom.

But those who wait on the Lord
Shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles,
They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.

Can you spot 5 birds
who are not flying?

Through the Window

Are there more leaves on
the trees or on the ground?

I wonder if you would rather fly in the sky or lie on a beach?

Can you make a bird with the feathers made from leaves?

Have a game of sleeping lions. Find somewhere comfortable and see how long you can lay still.

I wonder if you can hear God?

As you look out of the window can you be so
still that you can hear
yourself breathing?

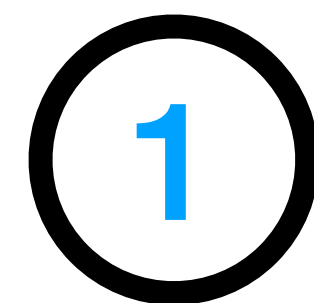

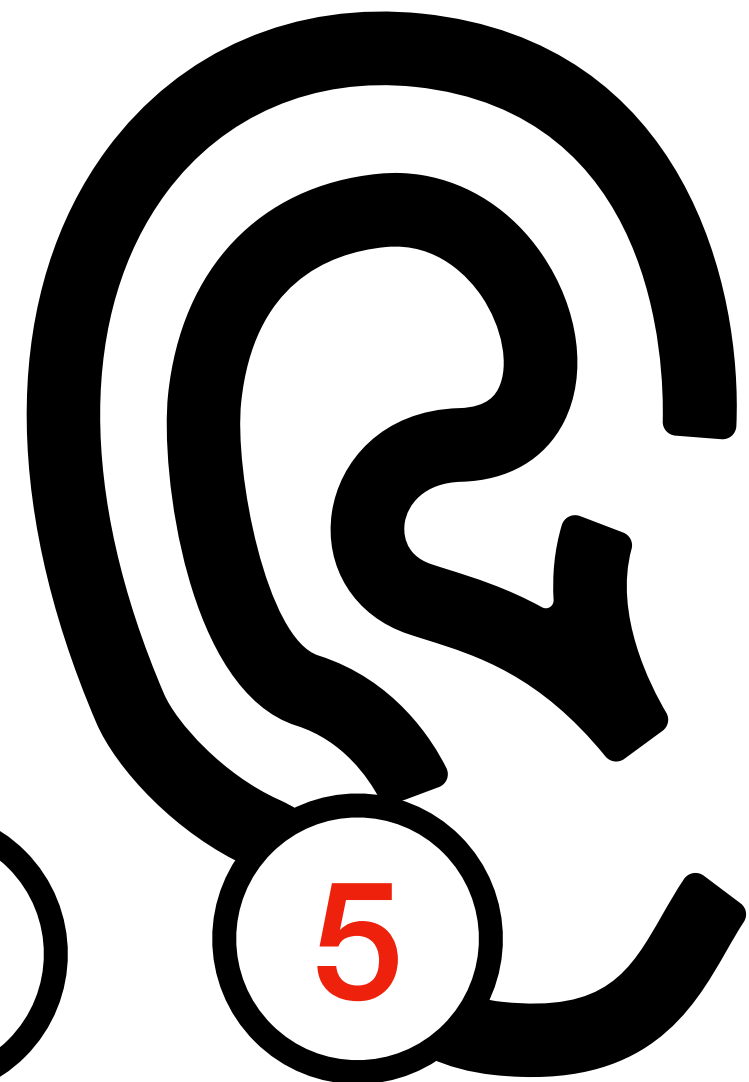

Through the Window

I am praying to you because I know you will answer, O God.
Bend down and listen as I pray

Psalm 17:6

Can you hear 5
different things?

Can you make a wind chime for your garden? Add some sticks, leaves, bells, wrappers....
Try different things for a range of sounds.

If you have some jars in the recycle try filling them with different items and then seeing what noise they make.

Create your own garden xylophone.

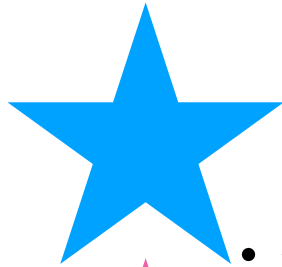

Yet God has made everything beautiful
for its own time. He has planted eternity
in the human heart, but even so,
people cannot see the whole scope of God's work from beginning to end.

Cut out a heart
from some paper
or card and use
to frame photos
of the things you
love.

If you have some dry wipe markers
and a mirror (and permission) try drawing yourself in the mirror.

You could add a new hairstyle,
glasses or even a moustache!

Can you find something tiny?

Can you find something bright?

Can you find something huge?

Can you find something dark?

What a wildly wonderful world, God!

You made it all, with Wisdom at your side, made earth overflow
with your wonderful creations

I am the vine, and you are the branches.
If any remain in me and I remain in them,
they produce much fruit. But without me
they can do nothing.

Growing

Blossom

Make a growing plant.

Draw around your hands to make a plant pot with grass.

Make your flower using a stick and some scrap paper
or wrappers.

Make a growing chart

Draw around your hands and feet and ask someone to help measure your height. Check again each month and write it down to see how much you are growing (or shrinking!)

You could try growing food from scraps...
Cut the top off carrots or the bottom from celery and lettuce
and place in some water and watch new growth.
