

Can you see anything sparkling?

What is the most important gift you have ever received?

Can you find a treasure?

What is most precious to you?

I wonder what treasure you could give to God?

The gift of gold, to a poor family, away from their home, who had borrowed a place to have their baby. Gold reminds us of a King - without a palace or a throne, no crown to see but a King who would care for all people.

Gold
