

The Wandering
Trail

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

I wonder if God is hovering in this space?

As you begin this wander close your eyes. What do you hear? What do you sense?

I wonder if you can see empty spaces?

I wonder if God is in the light?

Can you see things that belong to the daytime?

Can you see things that belong to the night?

I wonder if God is in the darkness?

What would it be like if there wasn't any sky?

sky

Can you see anything from the sky on the ground?

Can you see the edge of the sky?

What can you see in the sky?

I wonder if God is in the sky?

Can you see any water?

How does the land feel?

I wonder how many trees or plants you can see?

I wonder if there are seeds anywhere?

I wonder if God prefers the land or the sea?

Can anything grow without water?

I wonder if God prefers the day or the night?

Can you see things
that need the sun?

Can you see anything
while sleeping?

Can you see the moon?

Can you see any shadows?

Can you see any stars?

I wonder what you can see flying?

Would you rather fly or swim?

I wonder if God enjoyed creating all the different animals of the air and the sea?

I wonder if you can see anything that lives in water?

I wonder what God loves the most?

Can you hear anything like a heartbeat?

Can you see other animals and creatures?

Can you smell any animals?

I wonder what you think is very good?

Close your eyes and hold your hand out.

What can you feel in your hand?

What is in your hand?

Are there things you need to hold on to?
Are there things you need to let go of?

As you finish the wander please take a moment to pause and rest.

Is there a place you can sit, listen, breathe deeply?

Is nothing, a good thing?
